Message from our Clergy

Haman is alive and well!

Yes, Haman is alive and well and still in Persia (Iran). His sons are also doing well (the Mulahs). And the destruction of the Jews is still at the top of the list. Purim is almost here and we are faced with the same tragic events that gave us the celebration of this holiday. History is repeating itself even after 2500 years. It is like being brought back in time. The place is the same, the players the same, the intention the same. Will the results be the same? Where is Esther when you need her? Where is Mordecai?

I am reminded of Psalm 83: “O God, keep not your silence; hold not your peace, and be not still, O God. For lo, your enemies are in an uproar; and they that hate you have lifted up their head. They hold crafty converse against your people and, take counsel against your treasured ones. They have said: ‘Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.’” On and on the Psalmist decries the tortuous torment of the Jewish people.

You would think that this was written today because the prophesy is being fulfilled. Have you read the venom pouring from the mouths of the Iranians and their so-called religious leaders? It is as though they were copying their threats directly from the text. Do you remember Pittsburgh? The hate and vitriol resonates, in this country, today more than in recent memory.

I am also reminded of an essay written by Pastor Neimoller during World War II: “First they came for the Communists, and I didn’t speak up because I wasn’t a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn’t speak up because I wasn’t a Jew. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn’t speak up because I was Protestant. Then they came for me, and by that time there was no one left to speak up for me.”

And what of God’s silence? Isaiah answered that question most eloquently: “For as the Heavens are higher than the Earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts higher than your thoughts.” The answer to God’s silence is our silence and inaction. God is not silent—we are deaf. Faith does not require an understanding, but rather our participation in what was ordained from the beginning: To live together, to work together, to be strong together, to act together. Maybe then we can eliminate the evil that confronts us.

And perhaps as Psalm 83 ends, we too will understand: “That they may know that it is You alone whose name is the Lord, The Most High over all the Earth.”

Haman may be alive and well, but his fate is written in sacred texts.

It is my prayer that this Purim we will begin to witness the redemption of our people, and Israel will be safe and secure because the world will finally realize that if Israel falls all of us will not be far behind.

HAPPY PURIM TO ALL!

Rabbi Irwin Wiener, D.D.

President's Message

In March 1977, we were living in Burlington, Vermont, and our children were in the first and third grades. Our synagogue had just had a big Purim party and the kids were still very excited. They chatted and giggled about what costumes everybody wore and how much fun it was to shake the groggers. They were also excited about the carnival-style booths and the games they played and the hamentaschen they ate.

At the same time, we were planning our family's Passover seder a few weeks later. All four grandparents would be attending, as well as my 90-something-year-old grandfather, who would be traveling to Vermont with my parents from Boston. Our kids were very excited about all their grandparents coming as well. Like most grandchildren, they were kind of spoiled by each Nana and Papa and always played lots of Sorry, Casino, War, or whatever the game du jour happened to be.

So it was with delightful anticipation in late March that Jim and I attended our daughter's first grade open house, when each child had been asked to write a story about their favorite holiday. We wondered how Karen would choose between Purim and Pesach. Her teacher, Miss Debbie, had informed all the parents that the stories would be posted around the classroom. We asked Karen what she decided to write about, but she kept a very earnest look on her face and answered that she and her best friend from across the street, Sarah Fitzpatrick, had promised to keep everything a secret. They wanted their stories to be a surprise.

And a surprise it was! We arrived at Thayer School and wandered around her classroom, looking for her story. During our search, we read stories written by many of Karen's classmates, all very cute little two or three sentence tales. Finally we found Karen's. It was titled, "Why I Love St. Patrick's Day."

Of course, Jim and I both started to laugh. Sarah's family made a big green deal around St. Patrick's Day, and Karen always loved to participate. But then we found Sarah's story. Hers was all about Queen Esther. At age six, these two happy little girls had unknowingly educated one another about the fun aspects of their heritage. They loved each other's customs and didn't blink an eye about knowing and accepting that the other's home was different. Life was so uncomplicated. Oh, to be six again!

Ritual Committee Message

What an inspiring and beautiful service people were saying as they left the service. Everyone was excited and inspired. This did not just happen by accident. Our SLJC services are planned by the "Ritual Committee" and led by Rabbi Wiener. This committee plans and discusses all services in order to make sure they are exciting, religiously appropriate and run smoothly.

We are now looking to expand the Ritual Committee with NEW MEMBERS to join our committee with new ENERGY and IDEAS.

If you would like to be part of this active group and bring to it even more ideas, please call Rabbi Wiener at 623-640-5913. He will be most happy to talk with you about how you can contribute to making our services more meaningful to our congregation.

Congregational News Musical Achievements

Twenty-eight Fourteen

No, this is not a sports score, but rather the years we have been blessed with Lana Oyer and Shea Marshall.

This is Lana's twenty-eighth year as Choir Director. This is also Shea's fourteenth year as our organist. Combined they have given us forty-two years of heavenly experiences.

Lana: using Hebrew letters, with numerical values, the number twenty-eight spells the word "Ahavecha" (you are loved). Nothing truer could be said or written. Your dedication to our spiritual awareness is well known throughout the Valley. The choir you direct epitomizes the greatness that can be accomplished with devotion and attention to the beautiful sounds that emanate from such an assemblage.

Shea: again, using Hebrew letters with numerical values, the number fourteen spells the word "Ahavo" (love him). We all love your attention to our needs, your magical fingers and your love for us. We admire your talent that far exceeds any that we could have imagined.

Together: once more, using the Hebrew letters with numerical values, the number forty-two (the combination of both anniversaries) spells the word "Eloha" (in the name of God). There is no doubt that together you forge a spiritual bond that unites all of us as we join together in worshiping God inspired by your talents.

Let us not forget our illustrious Cantor Ronda whose melodious voice entralls us as each note that is sung lifts us to the heights of the musical notes ascending on high.

Join with us on March 8 as we join together to celebrate the musical accomplishments of these outstanding talented, gifted, members of our congregation.

Rabbi Irwin Wiener, D.D.
