The Power of the Spirit

More than 24 centuries ago a prophet in Israel declared that the most potent and enduring force in the world was not that of material wealth or physical strength, but the power of the spirit. For example, supporting institutions of caring and sharing affords us the opportunity to understand what true faith is all about — what we humans are all about. We understand that humankind is capable of good things, heavenly things without regard for material gain or selfish motives. This time of the year affords us the opportunity to extend ourselves for others.

Fasting on Yom Kippur may relieve our conscience, but that is all it does. We are instructed to afflict our souls. The Talmud explains that this means fasting — depriving ourselves of those things that represent benefits. But the true value of fasting, whether completely or in part, is to awaken within us the understanding that our sacrifice should help us appreciate the less fortunate — and do something about it.

And approaching a maturing stage of life is no excuse for ignoring our responsibilities. Tikkun olam, the continuing repair in the tear of the fabric of mankind's journey, requires constant participation. It is not enough to acknowledge the problems. We are obligated, as partners with God, to ensure that the tear is repaired to the best of our ability.

Each tear and each repair can bring us closer to understanding our place in this experience we call life. And the High Holiday season, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, help remind us that we are nothing without deeds. We are nothing without purpose. And only when we lift a person who has fallen, can we, with pride, declare who we are and truly comprehend the connection of Heaven and Earth.

This time of the year enables us to recollect as well as plan for tomorrow. We are asking for forgiveness of the past and making wishes for a future more prosperous in many ways even though we don't know what the future holds. Will these wishes include more than just our desires and needs? Will these wishes encompass the action necessary to fulfill the mission of spiritual enlightenment?

Our lives are so temporary. A wind can come and blow us away. Rain can fall and soak our dreams and aspirations. Fire can consume our shelter and even destroy our lives. This is the challenge our season of renewal represents.

Our shelter from life's storm is the support we extend to those in need. Our comfort in the face of adversity is the helping hand we offer to our fellowman. The fire that burns should be inside of us as we fight injustice and poverty and famine and homelessness.

A story is told about an old man who sat outside the walls of a great city. When travelers approached, they would ask the old man: "What kind of people live in this city?" And the old man would answer: "What kind of people lived in the place where you came from?" If the travelers answered: "Only bad people lived in the place where we came from," then the old man would reply: "Continue on, for you will only find bad people here."

But if the travelers answered: "Only good people lived in the place where we came from," then the old man would say: "Enter, for here too you will only find good people."

There is no doubt that good people live everywhere. Humanity records speaks for itself. The many agencies designed to ensure continuity and survival are a testament to that goodness. We don't ask, "Why?" Rather we ask, "How?" How can we as a people respond to the bad things that occur every single day — not as punishment for some imagined sin, but rather because things are the way they are, and it is our responsibility to share in the Creation process by doing what we can to alleviate the suffering that is part of the human experience. That is our partnership with God.

The prophets of long ago spoke the truth about the spirit being the most potent force in the world and we are living proof. My prayer is that the year just beginning will encompass a light that leads us from despair and will never be extinguished. And the sound of the Shofar we hear will stir in us a greater understanding of the partnership, and we will respond accordingly. 🕯️

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SHELLY HENDEN

See You Again In September

Is it really September? Where has the summer gone? Record temperatures remind us of years ago when the only air conditioning relief was "Movie Houses -- Cooled by Refrigeration?" Remember?

Arnie and I can't believe we are in our 23rd year here in Sun Lakes. It seems like yesterday when we arrived and began to meet people in the Congregation. We were spotted as new "younger" faces by some of the "older" members, and immediately recruited to get involved. Our response was to give us a year to finish and furnish our new house. Well, it didn't take long for us both to get involved, and we have been at it ever since. Who would have thought I would have been president 12 years ago and now again?

If you have a few hours a month, you too can participate in our congregation's growth and success. Give me a call (480-895-8851) and I will let you know what is available.

And just a reminder of what's coming up — of course, the High Holidays and yes, your tickets will arrive in the mail in mid-September. Break-Fast reservations are due September 18 (see form in the Shpiel).

Our next fundraiser, Sister Act, is a November 12, 4:30 pm matinee at the Hale Theatre. Please see below for details on this fundraiser series and how to make a reservation.

Don't forget the Twilight Service on September 9 at 5:30. Looking forward to seeing you soon! 🎪

SLJC FUNDRAISER

JOIN US AT THE HALE THEATRE!

Our congregation will be purchasing a block of tickets for shows beginning this fall at the Hale Theatre, a theater-in-the-round located at 50 W. Page Ave. in Gilbert. These performances will provide a chance to get together, see a show, maybe have a nosh in Downtown Gilbert, and raise some much-needed funds for our Congregation. All shows will be matinees at 4 pm.

The first show will be Sister Act on Saturday, November 12 at 4 pm.

Ticket price is $40. To make your reservation, please call Marcia Weiner at (480) 802-9455 or Shelley Schwartz at (480) 802-3608. Though the show is about three months away, it is important to make your reservation with Marcia or Shelley as soon as possible so we know how many people are planning to attend.

There will be more fundraising shows at the Hale Theater. Here is what is on the landscape: The Andrews Brothers on Tuesday, January 24 (a musical about a USO performance from the Andrews Sisters who fail to appear, so three stagehands take over in their places as they are determined that the show must go on). The show is filled to the brim with over 30 hit tunes made famous by the Andrews Sisters. The other upcoming shows are 42nd Street on Saturday March 11 and Bye Bye Birdie on Saturday, May 20. We hope you can join the fun!

SOMETHING YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW

ABRAHAM MATZA

By Murray Siegel

What or who was Abraham Matza? It sounds like an item you might purchase for Passover; Abraham was a Greek Jew who grew up in the Bronx and is a little-known hero of World War 2. The Matza family were members of the Romaniote Jewish Community in Ioannina, Greece. Much of his family did not immigrate to the U.S. and were arrested when the Nazis invaded Greece. They were all sent to Auschwitz where they perished.

Abraham wished to avenge his family about whom all contact was lost. He joined the U.S. Army and was assigned to the 289th Infantry Regiment, which found itself in the midst of the Battle of the Bulge. On January 6, 1945, his unit was patrolling near Manhay, Belgium when they were attacked by a larger German force.

Abraham realized that they were severely outnumbered, so he told his comrades to retreat while he held off the enemy. Firing his Browning Automatic Rifle (BAR), he confronted the German force, killing more than 30 of them before he was killed. The following day, the American troops returned to the location, finding Abraham's body riddled with many bayonet wounds. He had given up his life to save his buddies. Abraham was buried with honors in the Henri-Chapelle American Cemetery in Belgium.

SLJC SISTERHOOD

Upcoming Sessions: Thursday, October 20, Chapel House

We are all saddened by the passing of Suzy Ziegler, treasurer and long-time member of the Sisterhood at Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation. If you are planning to send in your Sisterhood membership check, please note that the forms and checks should be sent to Carol Biales at the address listed on the revised membership form below.

Our meetings will resume in person on Thursday, October 20 at 1 pm in the Chapel House. The speaker will be Karolyn Bengler (see photo), Rabbi Beyo's wife, who will share her journey to become a rabbi. Although women have pursued studies to become rabbis since 1921, it was not until 1972 that the first female rabbi, Sally Priesand, was formally ordained. Fifty years later, our speaker is embarking on a similar path. We look forward to seeing you at our kick-off meeting in October.

KEVER AVOT SERVICE

THE RESTING PLACE OF OUR ANCESTORS

By Rabbi Irwin Wiener, D.D.

This High Holiday season, we will hold our annual Kever Avot Service, a tradition in our congregation and many societies during the High Holiday Season. It is a ceremony that is performed at the cemetery, usually the Sunday prior to Yom Kippur. The service is designed to give us an opportunity to remember members of our families and friends who are no longer with, and as to recall the happiness that was shared when they walked among us.

We will whisper their names, we will cherish their memories, and we will connect to the past as we endeavor to prepare for our future in the year ahead.

It is a beautiful ceremony recalling the flight of time as well as encouraging us to gain strength from the lives of loved ones. Some losses are recent and some more distant, but all involving the recollection of achievements and defeats that make up our journey of life.

Join me and the Cantor on Sunday, October 2 at 10:30 am for this service at the Valley of the Sun Cemetery. Although many of our loved ones are not necessarily there, we use this venue as a reminder of all the locations of our bereavement. Also, at this sacred time in this sacred place, we will recall the men and women of our armed forces who lost their lives on distant shores, those who perished in the atrocities of the Holocaust, those whose lives were destroyed during the pandemic, and the victims of the heinous crimes occurring in Ukraine.

This year we will also bury sacred writings or religious objects and visit the graves of those members and families buried at this cemetery. If you have sacred books, such as Bibles or religious objects, including mezzuzot, please bring them with you for burial.

The service is open to all members of the Jewish community.

NEW CHAPEL ENTRY

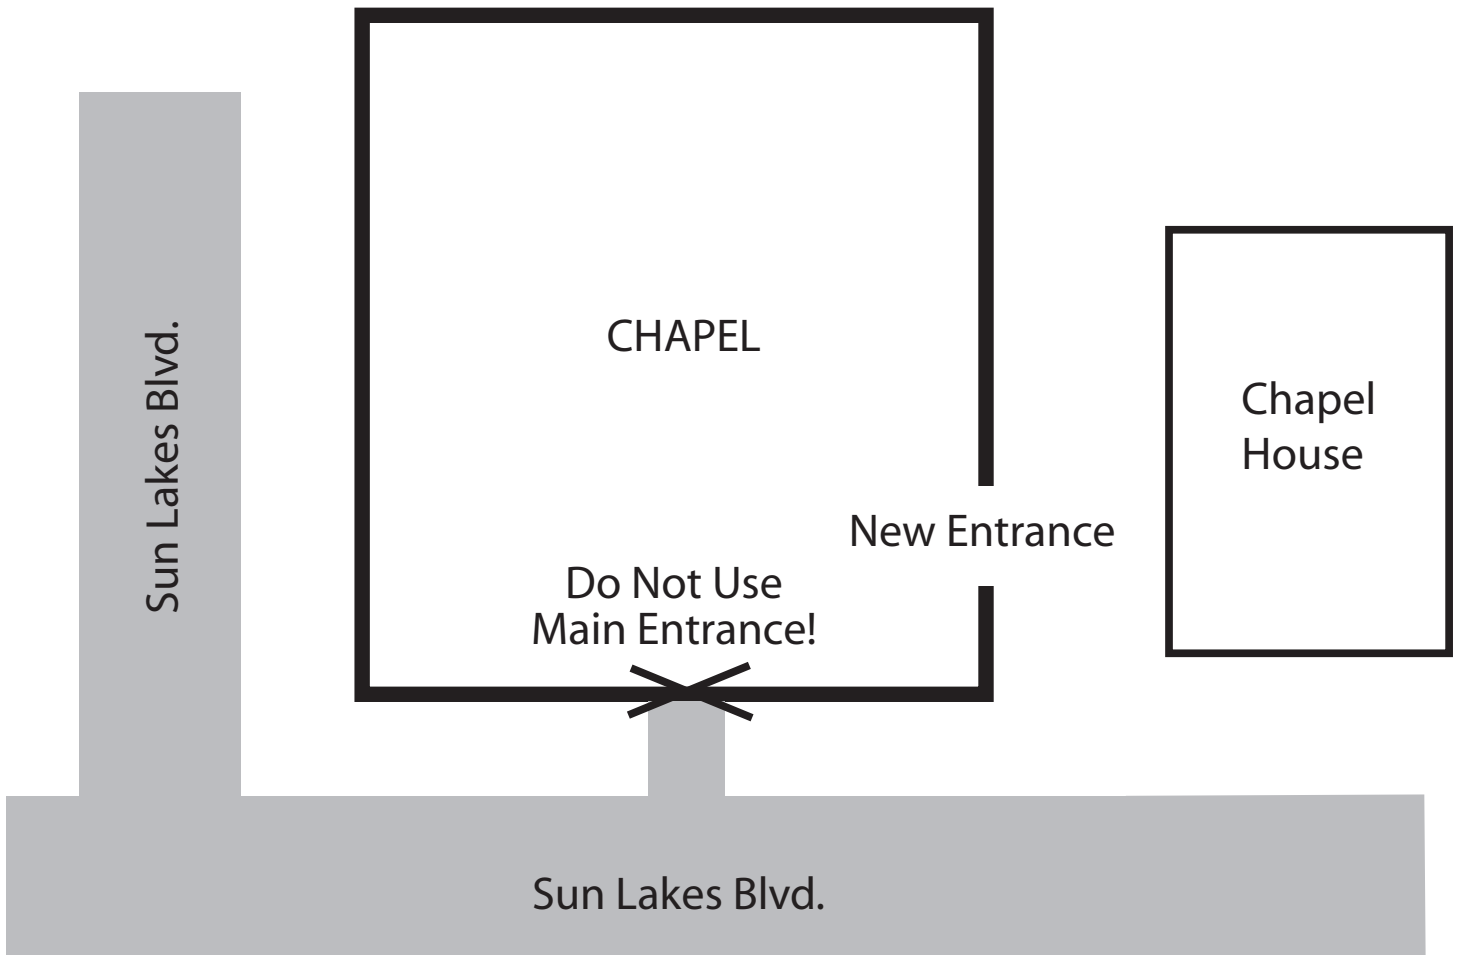

The Arizona Rangers strongly suggest that we move the entrance of the Chapel for future services to the side door (opposite the Chapel House parking lot) and lock all other doors for several reasons:

- It's easier for people to come in from any parking lot (back lot, handicapped lot, or lot across the street).
- It's easier for people with disabilities to enter through the side door.
- It's easier for anyone needing extra help to be picked up via the handicapped parking lot.

- It's already where the choir comes in.
- It's safer for the Rangers to be out of harm's way should a gunman attack, and they will be better able to protect us.

Given the recent attack on a church and the continuing uptick of antisemitism, we should follow their advice. (The Rangers would continue to provide safe crossing for anyone parked in the lot across the street.)

JEWISH WAR VETERANS COPPER STATE POST 619

JWV VOLUNTEERS TO HOST BARBECUE FOR VETERANS AT MANA HOUSE

Sunday, September 18, 9:30 am, Poolside Building of Oakwood Country Club, 24218 S. Oakwood Blvd., Sun Lakes

Almost in our backyard sits a gem honoring all veterans of the military. The development of Veterans Oasis Park Field of Honor from conception to reality will be the topic for Sunday, September 18 Jewish War Veterans Copper State Post 619 meeting. Mickey Ohland, Community Services Planning Manager for the City of Chandler, will address the group in the Poolside building of Oakwood Country Club, 24218 S. Oakwood Blvd. in Sun Lakes.

Mickey Ohland joined the City of Chandler in 1995. As Community Services Planning Manager, he oversees the park acquisition, park development, and other department wide projects. Mickey has been involved with the Chandler Veteran's Memorial Project since its inception in 2008.

Situated on the southwest corner of Veterans Oasis Park, the Field of Honor at 4050 E. Chandler Heights Rd. in Chandler, which opened last year, pays tribute to the Southeast Valley's past, present, and future veterans.

It's the first veterans' memorial of its size and scope in the Southeast Valley and honors all veterans from all branches of the U.S. military. The memorial, made up of stone columns, is designed after the American Flag, and is especially beautiful when lit up at night. Veterans Oasis Park is open for public use from 6 am to 10:30 pm The park consists of 113 acres and offers a playground, water oasis for fishing, walking paths, horse trails, and a pavilion which can be rented.

The meeting will begin with complimentary bagels, lox, and coffee starting at 9:30 am, followed by the Mickey's discussion at 10 am. Everyone is invited and there is no charge, but to partake in the food, a reservation is required by Friday, September 15, 5 pm by contacting Joyce Spartonos, preferably by email, at joytoyspartonos@aol.com, (480) 802-4902.
